COGNITIVE OVERLOAD: EXCESS TEACHER TALK

How many think you talk too much as a teacher?

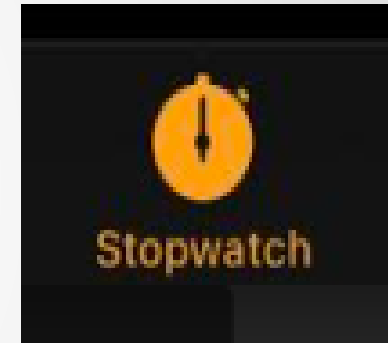

COGNITIVE OVERLOAD: EXCESS TEACHER TALK

- audible self-talk
- chatter
- talking while students are working
- over-explaining
- narrating our technology navigation
- self-answering
- echoing students
- talking while we are presenting written material that we have asked students to read
- filling the void

REDUCING TEACHER TALK TIME: REFLECTION & SELF-ASSESSMENT

REDUCING TEACHER TALK TIME: ALTERNATIVES TO SPEECH

- Model instructions instead of talking
- Give simple written instructions and don't elaborate
- Script your instructions in advance if you need to
- Use a picture to explain instead of many words

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 1: CHANGE YOUR APPROACH

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 2: DETERMINING WHY YOUR STUDENTS DON'T TALK

- they don't know the answer
- they didn't understand the question
- we asked a yes/no question
- they are intimidated by the online format
- they don't know how to unmute their microphone
- they are not confident in their answer
- they are not confident to speak English even if they know the answer
- we finish their answers for them

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 3: BUILD COMMUNITY

- Ice breakers
- Sharing things from home
- Create a safe place where they can try new things and make mistakes

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 4: GIVE STUDENTS THE OPPORTUNITY TO TALK

- Wait time
- Student-led activities (use a spinner to pick the next student)
- Ask open-ended, higher order questions
(great website for open ended questions: <http://iteslj.org/questions/>)
- Let students answer each others' questions
- Teach them how to ask for help: use a Zoom tool or hand signal to get your attention

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 5: GIVE STUDENTS THE LANGUAGE THEY NEED

- Students write an answer before going to the Breakout Room (Think-Pair-Share)
- Teach students to ask clarification questions
- Create interview questions with students
- Scaffold the speaking lesson with prior lessons so students have vocabulary, grammar, context

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 6: USE THE TECHNOLOGY WE HAVE!

Breakout Rooms can be used to

- review homework with a peer
- practice a conversation
- role play
- have a debate
- interview each other
- introduce themselves
- practice dictation
- create a conversation with idioms

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 6: USE THE TECHNOLOGY WE HAVE!

“Recreate” Breakout Rooms to mix up pairs for “speed dating” or “Bingo” type activities

All existing rooms will be replaced.

Assign 0 participants into Rooms:

Automatically Manually

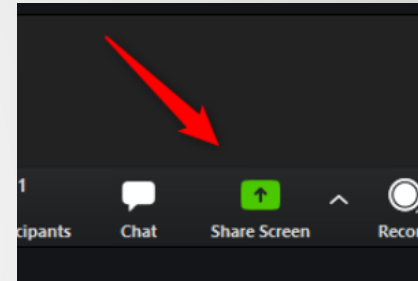

0 participants per room

Recreate All Rooms

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 6: USE THE TECHNOLOGY WE HAVE!

Teach students to “Share their Screens”

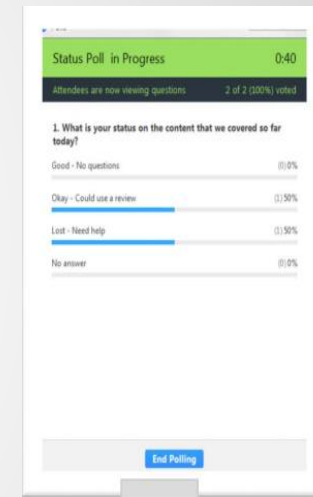

- share a photograph or website
- share a document they’ve written
- share a slideshow
- watch a short video and talk about it with a peer

INCREASING STUDENT TALK TIME SOLUTION 6: USE THE TECHNOLOGY WE HAVE!

Zoom polls

- To present choices
- Give students language to talk about a topic

UNIT 5 TEAM PROJECTS

RATE THE AIRLINES MAKE A POSTER

TEAMS OF 4 Captain, Co-captain, Assistant, Spokesperson

GET READY Captain: Ask your teammates about an airline they have flown on. (If they have never flown, encourage them to use their imagination.)
Ask them about their experience—for example:

- How was the check-in?
- How were the meals?
- Did you watch entertainment (movies or TV shows)? Was it good?
- Was your flight on time?
- Did your luggage arrive OK?

Co-captain: Ask for the captain's information. Keep track of the time. You have 10 minutes.
Assistant: Take notes in the chart.

	Name of Airline	Check-in?	Meals?	Entertainment?	On time?	Luggage?
Student 1
Student 4

Materials

- large paper
- markers

CREATE Co-captain: Get the materials, then keep track of the time. You have 15 minutes.
Team: Create a poster about the airline that got the best rating. Use the information from your chart.

REPORT Spokesperson: Show your poster to the class. Tell the class about the best airline.

Convert a Pearson Team Project into a Google Doc.

Multiple groups can work on the project simultaneously.

The teacher can observe them working in the Doc and also join each Breakout Room to listen to the conversation.

Rate the Airlines!

One student will share their screen and do the typing.

Student 4 will interview Student 1. Ask them about an airline they have flown on. Ask them about their experience. For example:

- How was the check-in?
- How were the meals?
- Did you watch a movie or tv on the flight? Was it good?
- Was your flight on time?
- Did your luggage arrive ok?

Then, Student 1 will interview Student 2. Student 2 will then interview Student 3. Student 3 will then interview student 4.

After the interviews, use the information in the table below. Each student will write at least two sentences about the airline that got the best rating, and the at least two sentences about the airline that got the worst rating. Write your sentences on your own paper. You will share your sentences with the class!

	Name of Airline	Check-in?	Meals?	Entertainment?	On time?	Luggage?
Student 4

- What else works?
- What activities do you use that encourage your students to talk?
- Be prepared to share your two best ideas when you return
