Add a new slide

Insert an image, text box, audio, video etc..

Change font, font size, text color etc..

Select/ Copy/ Paste slides as needed

Go back to Google Classroom and Assign

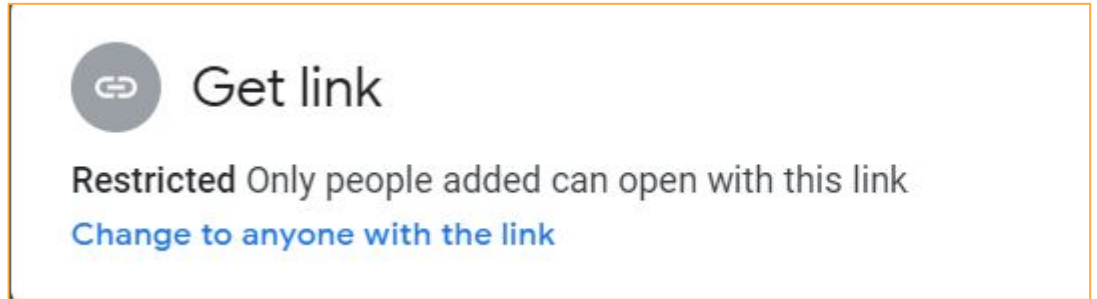

The screenshot shows the Google Classroom interface. At the top left, there are two buttons: 'Add' with a paperclip icon and 'Create' with a plus icon. Below these is a list of files. The first file is 'Untitled presentation' by 'Google Slides'. A context menu is open over this file, showing three options: 'Students can view file' (highlighted in light blue), 'Students can edit file' (highlighted in light grey), and 'Make a copy for each student'. A close button (X) is visible in the top right corner of the menu.

Share (if not using Google Classroom)

Anyone with the link can edit the file.

The image shows the sharing settings for a Google Docs document. At the top, there is a 'Get link' button with a link icon and a gear icon for settings. Below this is a green highlighted URL: https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1VB8h5_7WJ1C0mwMKT5EE13ox... with a 'Copy link' button to its right. The main sharing settings are displayed in a light blue bar: 'Anyone with the link' with a dropdown arrow, and the text 'Anyone on the internet with this link can view'. Below this bar is a link that says 'Send feedback to Google'. A dropdown menu is open on the right side of the sharing bar, showing three options: 'Viewer' (which is selected and has a blue checkmark), 'Commenter', and 'Editor'. A large orange arrow points from the bottom of the sharing bar towards the 'Editor' option in the dropdown menu.
